

YOU!

Know your rights and responsibilities as an Association member:

Become familiar with your negotiated contract, participate in association meetings, ask questions, share your ideas, and seek professional support for your concerns and issues.

You are your best advocate. Be informed and active.

“Your” Local Education Association:

Your Education Association

+ members strong, building and district representation, contract maintenance, advocate for professional and fair treatment of all association members.

President, Vice President, and Exec Boards

YOUR regional association:

Sammamish UniServ Council

Provides support for local bargaining, contract maintenance, member awareness, professional development, member service.

4900+ members represented in seven (7) local school districts.

Pres. Mary Lindquist; V.Pres. Neva Luke, 425-392-2126

YOUR state association:

Washington Education Association (WEA)

Statewide representative of 76,000+ K-12 and college professionals.

Washington’s largest public employee labor organization.

WEA’s mission is “to make public education the best it can be for students, staff, and communities. www.washingtonea.org

President Charles Haase Vice President Dave Scott

YOUR national association:

National Education Association (NEA)

Founded in 1857, the NEA is the nation’s oldest and largest organization committed to advancing public education. NEA represents 2.5 million members that work in every facet of education, has affiliates in every state, and 13,000+ local affiliates. NEA promotes public education issues and provides support and benefits to its members. www.nea.org

President Reg Weaver; Vice President, Dennis Van Roekel